Category (Category Headings)

Overview

The Category Headings section allows users to manage and organize catalog categories. Users can create and manage category headings by assigning videos, sub-categories, and products to make the catalog structure more organized and easier to navigate.

Navigation

Home → Manage Categories → Category Headings

Category Headings

The Category Headings page displays all available catalog categories along with their assigned videos, categories, and products. Users can manage category-related content from this section.

Manage Category Heading

To manage a category heading:

1. Open the Category Headings section.
2. Find the required category from the list.
3. Click on the Edit/Update option.
4. Add or modify the required details such as:
   - Video
   - Categories
   - Products
5. Save the changes.

The assigned videos, categories, and products will be displayed under the selected category heading in the catalog.
